KAIMUKI REPUBLICANS NOW OUT TO BEAT C. G. BARTLETT

Statement from Steering Committee of Precinct Shows How E. A. Berndt Was 'Thrown Down'—Supporters Say the Liquor Interests Dominated and Wouldn't Stand for Him

"A combine with the liquor interests forced E. A. Berndt off the 'state' for supervisor and beat him in the convention. Kaimuki was thrown down without even an opportunity to be heard."

This is the declaration of the members of the Republican club of the First precinct, Fourth district.

Declaring that the Kaimuki voters will not swallow C. G. Bartlett on the Republican supervisory ticket because he directly represents the liquor interests and is the king-pin in the liquor combination, which, they alleged, played unfair politics before and during the convention, the Republicans of Kaimuki have come to the front with a statement explaining just how the combine was worked to beat Berndt and to shut out the First precinct from any consideration.

The statement, which comes from the steering committee of the precinct club, was given to the Star-Bulletin this morning. It is as follows:

The voters of Kaimuki were snipped in the face by the liquor interests and their combination because the Kaimuki Republicans stood by their candidate, E. A. Berndt, and refused to be bluffed into throwing him over. The ultimatum that Berndt must go was given to E. A. Douthitt and T. M. Church, the steering committee, the day before the convention. It was not until a few hours before the convention actually opened that a delegation of two came to this steering committee and declared that the combination as then formed would not stand for Berndt and he must go.

Not a word was openly alleged against Berndt's record, nor could they prove that he was a weak man. It was simply that Bartlett didn't want Berndt, and the liquor interests were running the combination.

The Third, Fourth and Fifth precincts were told that they would have to stand by the combination, and they did, although Berndt was given ten votes in the Fourth. Affonso, candidate for the House, went down against the same combination that was fighting Berndt and for the liquor interests.

Months ago, when the movement for a businessmen's ticket was first broached, a number of businessmen, the majority of whom became later members of the steering committees of their various precincts, appealed to Mr. Berndt to stand as a candidate for the board of supervisors, asserting that he would have the support of the business interests of the country and that he was the kind of citizen timber which the people desired to have in the board for a business administration of the funds of the city and country.

At first Mr. Berndt refused to permit his name to be used. He stated that he was already giving his time to the work of the harbor commission as its secretary and his duties as the manager of Dimond & Company were such that he did not well see how he could give up more of his time to public service.

But the committee came to Mr. Berndt again, when they were practically officials representing their precincts, and made a plea that for the good of the city he permit his name to go before the convention as a candidate for supervisor. He finally consented and was told to get his precinct solidly behind him and the convention would do the rest.

With his usual energy Mr. Berndt started in to clinch his precinct, and did so, with the help of his friends, by a vote, approximately, of two to one. Not only this, but the Democratic precinct club also endorsed him as a supervisor, subject to action by the convention, by a unanimous vote. This decidedly disproves the excuse given by some of the convention delegates that Mr. Berndt is a weak man in his precinct. There is no one stronger as a candidate, say his supporters.

Meanwhile the steering committees

FEEL BULLY! HEAD CLEAR, STOMACH SWEET, BOWELS RIGHT—CASCARETS

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, and are all worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely dosing yourself every few days with salts, cathartic pills, castor oil and other harsh irritants?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and sweeten the stomach, remove the sour undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel cheerful and bully for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

of other precincts held joint meetings, and without in any way inviting the representatives of the First precinct to attend their caucuses took independent action, and at the last minute, namely Wednesday evening before the convention was held, informed the steering committee of the First precinct that Kaimuki would have to withdraw Berndt and failing to do so they would refuse to support Towse or Affonso for the house. Naturally the committee wanted to know why. No satisfactory reason was given at the time and the committee absolutely refused, stating they would stand by Berndt and go down to defeat in the convention if need be.

Liquor Interests Dominate.
Later it was discovered that the brewery interests in the two Democratic precincts of Kakaako, and the garbage bunch, declared that they would not stand for Berndt. In fact it is reported that Charles Bartlett, manager of the brewery, stated that he would not run on the same ticket with Berndt, and emphasized his demand that Berndt be "thrown down" with some exceedingly forceful language.

Thus it was that the businessmen who first induced Mr. Berndt to run as a candidate, against his wishes, later were bluffed by the liquor interests into making the deal with the very men they in the first place started out to fight in the interests of clean government, and broke their pledges to Mr. Berndt in favor of a raw political deal to "save their face" and power in the convention, which was threatened by the delegates from the two Democratic precincts, assisted by three Republican delegations which were in on the deal.

This is the exact situation as it was and is, according to those best informed and in close touch with every move since Mr. Berndt consented to run for supervisor.

HAWAII SINGERS IN NORTHWEST

That Hawaiian musicians and singers are appreciated in the Northwest is vouched for by the following, clipped from the Portland (Ore.) Telegram of September 12:

Regal music, such as formerly appealed to the tribal kings of the Hawaiian natives, will be rendered by the Hawaiian concert band at the Oaks during the closing part of this week's programmes at the park. Alou Kilo, one of the musicians engaged by Manager Cordray for the week, was formerly a minstrel in the court of Kaloane, one of the most noted of Pacific island rulers, and he will lead the native organization in the old folk songs which are no longer sung in the islands.

Aside from these selections, which with their wistful and haunting melody will make an especial appeal to the audiences, the singers and instrumentalists will render a number of popular airs and classical selections, making their concert interesting to every taste. The full quota of 20 musicians will appear at each afternoon and evening concert.

Other favorite attractions at the Oaks will be continued. Ali Zada, the outdoor magician, and the famous Punch and Judy show sharing headline places with the Hawaiians.
